50th Hong Kong Surgical Forum

The 50th Hong Kong Surgical Forum is a significant landmark for both the Department of Surgery and The University of Hong Kong. This year is also a celebratory year for the medical community, as our Faculty of Medicine is celebrating its 120th Anniversary, alongside with the 70th Anniversary of Queen Mary Hospital and 50th Anniversary of Grantham Hospital.

From the pioneering event of January 1984, the Department of Surgery has continued to hold the Hong Kong Surgical Forum on a bi-annual basis. The 50th Forum is therefore an important milestone. To celebrate this remarkable occasion, the Forum has invited a total of 13 world-renowned surgeons from overseas to witness this memorable event with us in Hong Kong.

This special 50th Forum has been designed to cover a wide range of subjects in the field of Surgery on a two and a half-day programme.

CME Accreditation

CME points to be accredited from Colleges of the Hong Kong Academy of Medicine.

Announcement

Winter Forum 2008
Friday & Saturday, 11-12 January 2008

1st Hong Kong Nursing Forum

This First Nursing Forum aims to foster collaboration of research and strengthen partnership in clinical practice among nurses and surgeons as well as between academics and clinicians. Together we shape the way forward in research and practice.

The morning forum is a joint nursing-surgical session and we have invited international renowned scholars to be our keynote speakers. The theme of the afternoon nursing forum is "Enhancing Quality of Care: Pathway to the Future", which provides a platform to cultivate a collaborative culture aiming to enhance our efforts to improve the quality of care. Local speakers including nurse academics, clinical nurse specialists, and nurse managers will be giving state-of-the-art presentations on their research and clinical practice.

CNE Accreditation

CNE points are provided by the Centre for Health and Promotion of the Department of Nursing Studies, The University of Hong Kong

CNE accreditation (Day 1: 6 CNE pts; Day 2: 6 CNE pts; Day 3: 5 CNE pts)
